

Gazetteer of the St. Joseph Valley, Michigan and Indiana, with a view of its hydraulic and business capacities
Turner, Timothy Gilman
Hazlitt & Reed, Chicago, 1867

This is a digitally reproduced version of the Gazetteer of the St. Joseph Valley, Michigan and Indiana, with a view of its hydraulic and business capacities, by T. G. Turner, originally published in 1867. Historians, genealogists and all researchers of mid 19th century northern Indiana and southern Michigan will find the research material in this book invaluable.

The 168 page book on CD contains a brief historical profile of the people and places of the region. Northern Indiana and southern Michigan places and place names are identified and discussed in this excellent early resource. More than 60 pages of advertisements by businesses of the period are included.
