

CLEVELAND AND Toledo Railroad

This Road is one hundred and twelve miles in length, and is a part of the GREAT LAKE SHORE LINE between Buffalo and Chicago, which is the

MOST IMPORTANT THOROUGHFARE IN AMERICA.

Trains upon this road make direct connections at Toledo with Detroit and Toledo Railroad, Toledo and Wabash Railroad, and Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Railroad, for all points in the

West, North-west AND South-west

Connections are also made at Fremont with the Fremont and Indiana Railroad; at Clyde with the Sandusky, Dayton and Cincinnati Railroad; at Monroeville with the Sandusky, Mansfield and Newark Railroad; at Grafton with the Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati Railroad, and at Cleveland with the Cleveland and Erie, Cleveland and Pittsburg and Cleveland and Mahoning Railroads

For all Points in the East.

OFFICERS OF THE ROAD.

J. B. WARING, President.....	Cleveland, O.
L. D. RUCKER, Superintendent	" "
H. C. LUCE, Secretary and Treasurer.....	" "
J. U. PARSONS, General Ticket Agent.....	" "
T. S. LINDSEY, Freight Agent	" "
A. L. WHITE, " "	Toledo "